The Eastside gets its first jazz supper club in November

Cjazz Lounge will debut in the Hyatt Regency Bellevue

Kirkland, WA— Oct. 20, 2004. Cjazz will open the Cjazz Lounge in November at Hyatt Regency Bellevue, offering the Eastside its only jazz supper club to feature regional and national Smooth Jazz artists in a stylish and intimate setting.

The grand opening is set for Nov. 5 featuring national recording artist saxophonist Jeff Kashiwa and his band. The regular schedule calls for the Cjazz Lounge to present a variety of Smooth Jazz artists on select Thursdays & Fridays.

"Eastside jazz fans have longed for a place they can enjoy top notch live jazz without having to cross the bridge," said Michele Abrams, President of Cjazz, which produces and promotes live jazz events. "Situated in the heart of Bellevue, the Hyatt Regency offers the perfect venue for the Cjazz Lounge, providing an up close and personal experience with the artists. No where else on the Eastside offers anything like this."

A full dinner menu is planned by Hyatt Regency Bellevue's chef Gene Cunningham, along with appetizers, deserts and full bar.

"We are happy to provide a first-class venue for great jazz entertainment on the Eastside. Based on the early responses for dinner reservations, I believe the Cjazz Lounge will be well received by the community," quoted Steven J. Smith, Hyatt Regency Bellevue's General Manager.
